Our singular adventure also includes the ultimate Alaska wildlife photo trophy: brown bears! Photograph the Wild Heart of Alaska with Nat Hab

Alaska boasts unrivaled vastness, epic landscapes and natural beauty. Yet many photographers find themselves confined to crowded visitor hubs, missing genuine wilderness encounters. Our approach is different. We lead you off the well-trodden tourist track, revealing insider photography spots and legendary wildlife. Join us for an immersive photography adventure, and come home with spectacular images of America's Last Frontier!

1

For over 30 years, we've meticulously crafted our itinerary to maximize your opportunities to witness and photograph Alaska's renowned wildlife. From the iconic brown bears of Lake Clark National Park & Katmai's Brooks Falls, known for their agile salmon-catching skills, to the captivating marine life of Kenai Fjords, our flagship Alaska adventure promises unrivaled wildlife encounters.

2

Cover More Terrain for More Photo Opportunities

You want to say you've been to Alaska and have the pictures to prove it. To really capture the largest state in the US, you'll need to cover a lot of ground. Our exclusive itinerary traverses more than 2,000 linear miles via floatplane, helicopter, train, boat and minibus, all with the strategic goal of maximizing our photographic time and opportunities.

Fly to the Denali Backcountry via Private Chartered Bush Plane

Board a private bush plane at the Denali park entrance to fly 90 miles to our backcountry lodge, tucked deep in the far reaches of the national park. Revel in exhilarating vistas of tundra, peaks and wildlife below, with the chance—weather permitting—to fly close to the icy flanks of Denali itself. With the park road closed on an extended basis due to a major landslide, we have exclusive access by air to areas out of reach by road, a privilege few will experience.

4

Walk in the Footsteps of Ansel Adams

Capture the timeless beauty of Wonder Lake in Denali, mirroring the iconic shots of Ansel Adams. Immersed in pristine wilderness, you'll frame the majestic peaks and reflective waters, echoing Adams' legendary compositions and eternalizing your own unique perspectives on this breathtaking landscape.

5

Best Place for in the World Bear Photography

Few comprehensive Alaska photo tours offer bear viewing to the Alaska Peninsula's Bear Coast, which boasts the highest concentration of brown bears in North America. While summer conditions can vary, we assure optimal viewing during peak bear season. In June, bears are most abundant at Lake Clark National Park, along the verdant coast of the Cook Inlet at Nat Hab's private Alaska Bear Camp. While in July and August they can be found fishing for salmon in the iconic Brooks Falls at Katmai National Park. These exclusive experiences are unattainable via cruise or bus tours!

6

Cruise Kenai Fjords Aboard Our Private Chartered Boat

Embark on an exclusive voyage aboard a private charter boat, focusing on glaciers, icebergs, whales, seals, sea lions, otters, and the abundant birdlife within Kenai Fjords National Park. Avoiding the crowded deck of an excursion boat or a cruise ship carrying thousands, you'll get the best chance to photograph magnificent whales breaking the surface and the vibrant presence of puffins in flight.

7

Stay on a Private Island with the Sea at Your Doorstep

Experience the ultimate in seclusion as you overnight at a private beachfront lodge on tranquil Fox Island in Kenai Fjords. Here, amid the untouched Alaskan wilderness, discover genuine solitude with myriad photo opportunities right out your front door.

8

Shoot Alongside a Photography Pro Who Is Also an Expert Naturalist

Every Nat Hab Photo Expedition is led by a supremely qualified naturalist and accomplished photographer. With a keen eye for wildlife behavior, optimal lighting, and exclusive opportunities, your expedition leader ensures every moment is optimized for stunning photography. Capture the essence of Alaska's wilderness alongside a guide who not only knows the land intimately, but also understands how to translate its beauty into captivating images.

Important Information About This Trip

This trip ventures far afield from the typical Alaska tour circuit where large motorcoaches move long lines of cruise clients to crowded destinations. A couple of details you should be aware of: Power is available at Denali Backcountry Lodge, Kenai Fjords Wilderness Lodge on Fox Island, and at Bear Camp or King Salmon Lodge.

A prime focus of our Alaska adventure is bears, which, naturally, should be treated with caution. At Brooks Falls and in Lake Clark National Park, thousands of visitors have traveled here to view bears over the past 50+ years and, to our knowledge, there has never been a bear attack. But we never know exactly what bears are thinking, so we ask our travelers to consider this and pay close attention to the rules set forth by the park rangers.

Mandatory Insurance

Since the areas we travel to are remote and wild (that's why we go there!), we require that all guests have, at minimum, medical evacuation insurance for this program. This is for the safety of all guests. We require that your chosen independent insurance plan includes at least $250,000 in medical evacuation coverage.

To protect your investment and to provide peace of mind while you travel, we also strongly recommend purchasing comprehensive travel insurance. Plans may cover everything from medical treatment to trip cancellations and delays and lost luggage. Please contact our office if you would like more information about the medical evacuation and comprehensive travel insurance policies we offer by calling 800-543-8917.

Getting There & Getting Home

This trip begins in Fairbanks, Alaska, and ends in Homer, Alaska. You must arrive in Fairbanks by 4 pm on Day 1 in order to attend an orientation and welcome dinner at 5:30 pm. Because weather in Alaska can be unpredictable—especially for travelers making same-day flight connections—we strongly recommend arriving in Fairbanks prior to Day 1 to allow a buffer for any delays. For guests who come in early, recommended hotels will be included in your pre-departure materials. If you plan to arrive on Day 1, please ensure your flight arrives by the required time.

You may depart from Homer at any time on the final day.

Our Natural Habitat Adventures Travel Desk can best assist with your travel reservations, as our staff is familiar with the specific requirements of this program and can help arrange the most efficient itinerary. Please call us at 800-543-8917. While we offer the best available rates to us on airfare and additional nights accommodations, you may occasionally find special web rates or lower fares online.
